Last time we hold back to back events.
Just too stressful.

Golf Tournament
$19,394 Revenue
$11,979 Expenses

Received many gifts
Had a good time. Ran out of beer.
Next one, we're looking at improvements. Want to shift to Spring.
Better weather and less events to add to the conflict.

Volunteers helped tremendously.
Need corporate sponsorships. Those sponsors need time to put us in the budgets.
We're looking at not having the golf tournament until Spring 2021.

We'll have a meeting soon to discuss the pros and cons of why we want to hold it in 2021.

Dave Galaz ': Student involvement.
Helped by asking the students and they pooled their money to buy a hole sign. The students are also giving back.

Pitched an idea to the physics students to create a pneumatic golf shooter for the golf tournament.

Mr. Jauregui. Moved to send a. Letter to. Those. Classes who bought a sign.

80's Dance

$9,200 revenue

$2,224 profit

Well received and will definitely improve for the next one.
Many comped tickets and booze.
Biggest expense was the lounge furniture.
Split some expenses (liquor) with the Veteran's Celebration Event.

Football vs.St Francis did not go to well

Key players did not play but they will be back for the playoff game this coming Friday.
Against Crespi the team performed very well.
Against Salesian the team did exceptionally well using all the players.

This Friday we're playing the Tesoro Titans from Santa Margarita
In Division 3, they are ranked #6 and Cathedral #13. Cathedral's strength of schedule is better and it will be a packed house. Be here early. $12 general admission.

If Paraclete and Cathedral win this Friday, Cathedral gets another home game for the second round.

The Soccer schedule is out.

The first game for Soccer they're playing on the 14th against Simi Valley (Scrimmage)

Dave Galaz - Cross Country won league today.
Next: Playoffs will start next Saturday
